Editor's Message

Dedication

We, the Annual Staff, dedicate the 1964-65 BLUE QUILL to the memory of Mr. Dewitt C. Duvall.

Mr. Duvall's service for others was exemplified by his membership in the local First Baptist Church, as a charter member of the local Lions Club, his military service aboard a hospital ship during World War II, as an honorary member of and worker for the local high school chapter of the Future Farmers of America, as vice president of the local Board of Education for the past decade, as a member of the Polk County Board of Selective Service, as a justice of the peace for the past six and a half years, and as a former administrator of the local Polk County Hospital.

The memories of this departed friend and patron of the local schools will always be with us.

The Seniors are ready to go on their trip!

Activities for the Class of '65 were many and varied, with the senior trip at the end of the year as the ultimate goal of all money-making projects.

During the year Seniors participated in the annual Powder-Puff football game, ran concession stands at home football games, sold lunches on Western Day, sponsored a barbeque supper, and worked as a class at the barbeque given by owners of the Big Thicket Lake Estates.

As the Blue Quill goes to press, the Seniors are realizing the profits from all these activities. Plans for the long awaited trip included tours of San Antonio, New Braunfels, and Galveston.

The election of favorites and personalities at Corrigan High School is a necessary part of campus life.

Some of the students whose pictures appear on these pages have excelled in scholastic achievement, some in their ability to get along with their fellow students, and some have excelled in both.

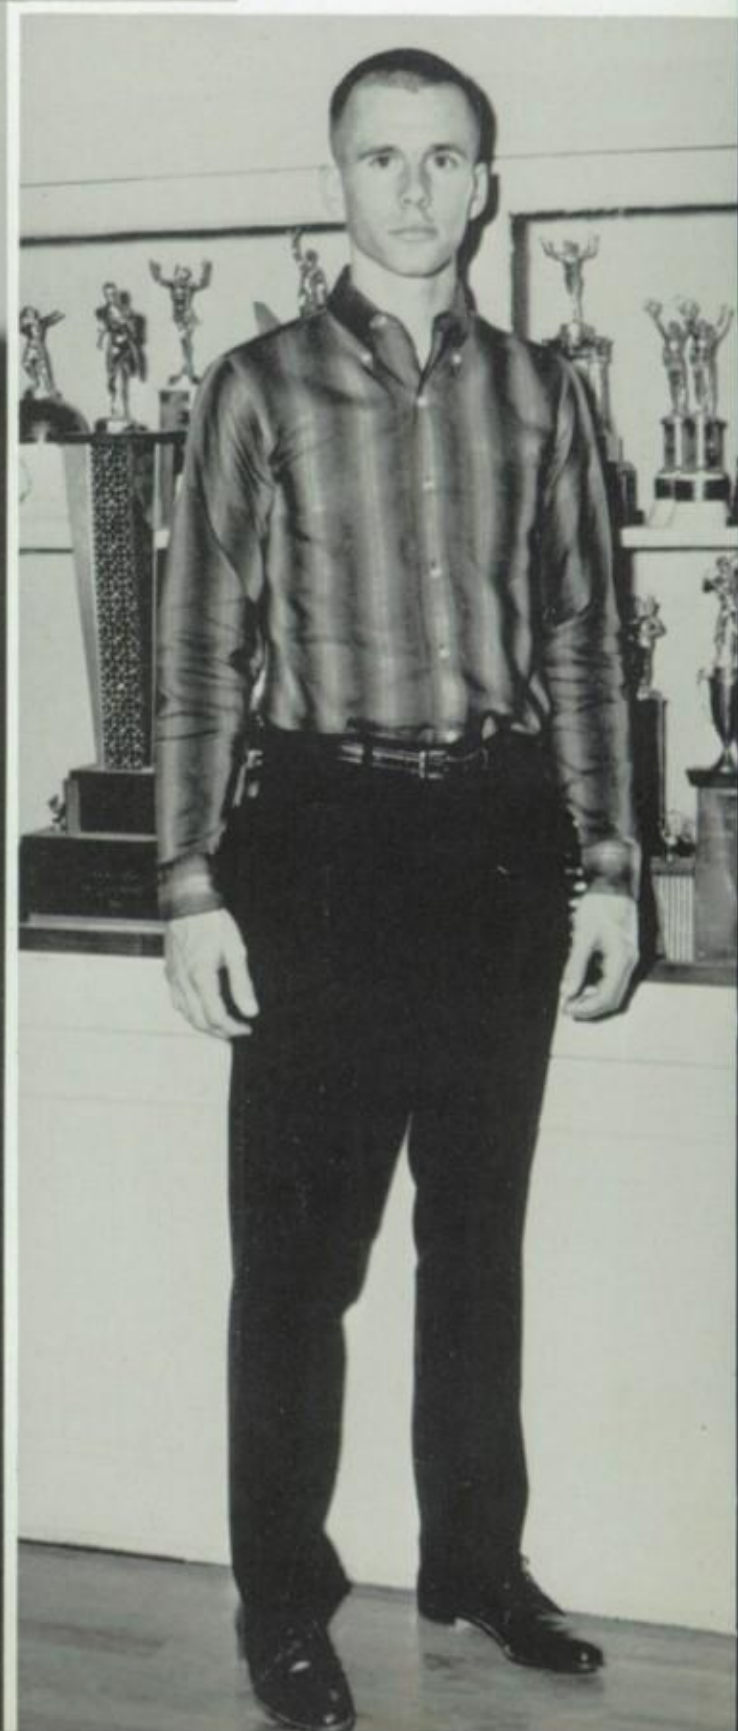

Features

Mr. CHS

RONNIE SMITH

Ronnie well deserves the title of Mr. CHS. He has represented our school in four sports, as well as being a member of the National Honor Society and Vice President of the Senior Class. His charm and wit make him an interesting asset to any class.

LEON MURDOCH

For the first time in the history of Corrigan High School, a Student Council constitution was drawn up and ratified by the student body. After an active campaign for offices, the student body elected Leon Murdoch as president; Billy Garsee, vice president; Winnie Harris, secretary; and Sheila Johnson, treasurer. Mrs. Jean Reily was appointed sponsor.

This year, the Student Council sponsored an all-student New Year's Eve party, raised funds for a bulletin board to be placed in the hall, prepared a Code of Ethics for students of Corrigan High School, and held various elections.

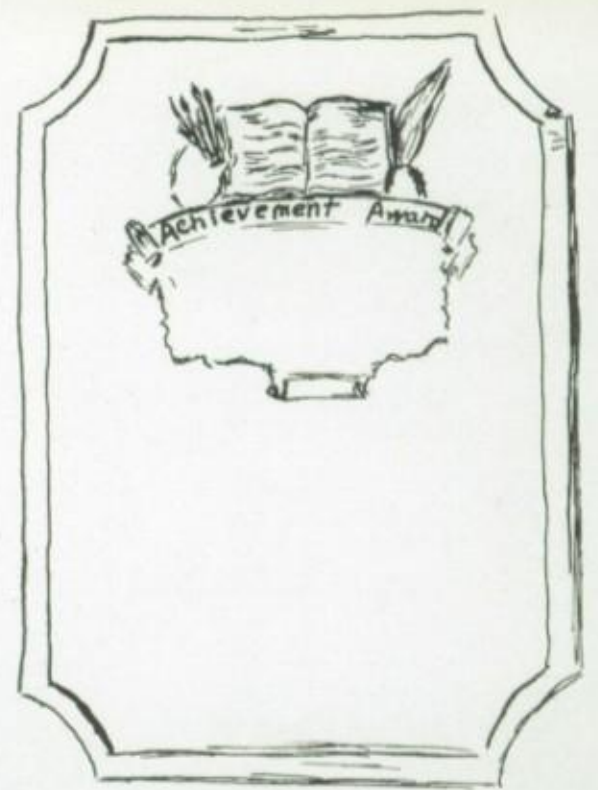

Organizations

The Editor, Jeannie Gibbs, and Assistant Editor Carl Eidson check the dummy with Sponsor, Mrs. Gwen Reily.

Mary Pope, Organizations Editor, and Tim Matlock arrange the bulletin board to push the sale of annuals.

Sports Editor Billy Norman, with the help of Bill Mallard and Billy Garsee, picks out suitable shots for their section.

Bill Mallard.

Linda Fuller, Features Editor, confers with Linda Shepherd about the final copy layouts.

A black and white photograph of a group of seven students in a classroom. On the left, four students (three men and one woman) are gathered around a desk with a typewriter. One man is seated at the typewriter, while the others stand behind him. On the right, two men are standing and looking at a newspaper or magazine together. A chalkboard with a geometric diagram is visible in the background.

Assistants: Mary Pope, Nelda Fann, Linda Shepherd,
Sylvia Johnson, Tim Matlock, and Carl Eidson.

The National Honor Society

One of the highest honors that a student can have bestowed upon him is to be selected as a member of the National Honor Society. The students are selected on the basis of scholarship, service, character and leadership.

Student Assistants

The teenage librarians serve the student body as Library Assistants. They help Mrs. Brown keep the library in order.

The Office Assistants help Mr. Sims with his duties as principal. Their jobs include filling out the daily absentee record and running errands.

Future Homemakers of America

The purposes of the Future Homemakers of America are promotion of better family living, participation in home, school, and community activities, and the importance of home economics.

Campus Life

The flag is raised . . .

. . . and classes begin.

Members of the Annual Staff promote sale of annuals.

Football season begins with a bonfire and pep rally the night before the game.

The student body assembles each Friday morning during the season to cheer the Bulldogs.

Bulldogs leave auditorium after hearing pep talks by team members, coaches, and other members of the faculty.

Spring brings with it the annual Western Day activities sponsored by the Seniors. Sheriff Billy Garsee arrests three fellow students.

Band marches in one of many parades.

Campaign posters line the bulletin boards and hall before Student Council elections.

Faculty members and members of the Student Council tally votes after an election.

Junior-Senior Prom climaxes year of student activities.

The day finally arrives! Seniors turn in books for the last time.

ACTION . . . has been the keynote of the school year 1964-65, and sports at Corrigan High School have been no exception.

An exciting year of sports began when the Bulldogs met Warren on September 4. The action-packed season closed with the annual banquet, and football faded into action on the basketball court. Spring brought with it the sight of men running track and the sound of "Play ball," as the Corrigan nine took to the field.

From September until May the athletic department of CHS not only brought honor and recognition to its students; it stimulated character development and sportsmanship in all those concerned, whether they were participants or spectators in the stands.

Football

Coaches Billy Hopson and Jerry Coker did an outstanding job of coaching the football boys this year.

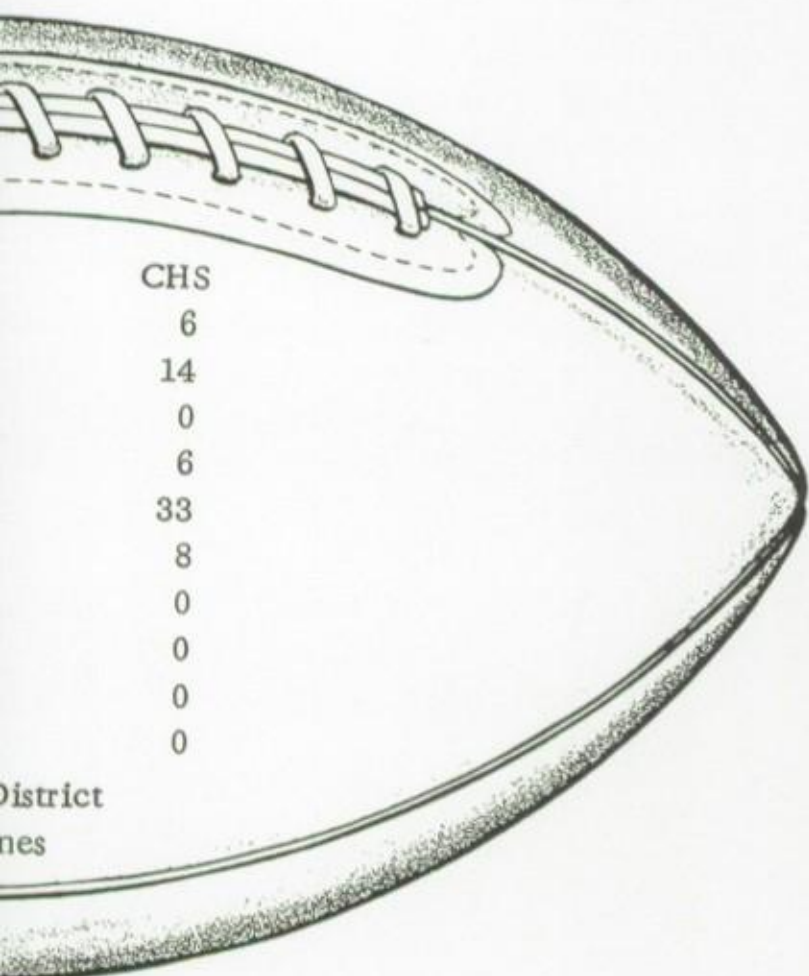

Coach Hopson, who is a graduate of SFA, came to Corrigan from San Augustine. Coach Coker came to us from Weatherford and is also a graduate of SFA.

Students of the Corrigan Junior High School are an integral part of the Campus Life. Believing that "a healthy mind in a healthy body" produces the well-rounded individual, the junior high school endeavors to provide both. Students are taught the "three R's" to improve their minds, but they also participate vigorously in the physical fitness program, sports, and other activities of the school.

Exemplifying the school spirit of these students are Junior High Cheerleaders Marian Langston, Mary Hardin, Belinda McCoslin, Ann Thomas, and Cynthia Jordan.

Someone has said that the difference between our free economy and the communist kind is plenty. The plenty we enjoy is due in no small part to advertising, which is the life-blood of our economy.

Our sincere thanks go to the advertisers who made possible the Blue Quill and the many other good things we enjoy.

Sincerely,

David Ferry

A JOB IS WAITING...

KEEPING America strong and free is a big job. A job requiring constant progress and more electrical power. Most of this will come from investor-owned electric companies, like Gulf States.

It's your job, too. Education holds the key to our success as individuals, as a nation. Learn all you can... our future is at stake.

This concludes the 1965 BLUE QUILL. This yearbook marks the twenty-fifth edition as well as the progress made to publish what, we think, is the finest and most beautiful annual in the history of the BLUE QUILL.

As editor, I would like to take this opportunity to express thanks to the faculty, the students, and the yearbook staff, who have made this annual possible. We express our sincere thanks to Mrs. Reily, our sponsor, for her tireless efforts and guidance. We hope that as you turned these pages, you have, in memory, lived again the happy school days of this year.

Sincerely yours,

Jeannie Gibbs
